TUESDAY, APRIL 22. 1740.

NUM. 1510

1740. 1508.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated April 25. N.S.

HO' so great a Secret is made of the Regulation lately concluded between the Republic of Genoa and the Court of Versailles, we are assur'd by a Letter from Final, that 'tis thereby stipulated, that France shall withdraw a Part of her Troops from the Island of Corfica, and leave no more there than what are absolutely necessary for maintaining the Tranquillity on the Footing it now stands.

They write from Vienna, that a Lottery is lately set up there for the Benefit of the Poor, which consists of 50000 Tickets, and is like to fill much sooner than was expected, by reason of the general Disposition there is to relieve the Necessitous by this new Canal. The Imperial Family, and the Duke of Lorraine have 6000 Tickets in it; and the whole Court follows their Example, there being certain Noblemen who have subscrib'd for 800, some for 1000, and others for 1200 Tickets.

We hear from Madrid, that the King of Spain has order'd all Vagabonds to be apprehended throughout his Kingdom, from 8 Years of Age to 48; that those from 8 to 15 be employ'd on Board his Men of War, and the rest in the Land-Forces; and that in three Days time there were no less than 12 or 1300 taken up at Madrid. All the Spanish Officers are order'd to have their Companies complete by the End of this Month. As soon as the Court receiv'd the News of the Expedition of the English at Porto Bello, Orders were dispatch'd to Cadiz, to send away Advice-Boats immediately for Carthage and Buenos Ayres, with new Instructions for the Governors of those two Towns, and other Places in America: And we are assur'd, that among the rest an Order is gone from the King, to prosecute the Commandants and other Officers of two of the Forts at Porto Bello, and Gloria Castle in particular.

IRELAND.

Dublin, April 12. His Grace the Lord Primate, the Right Hon. the Lord High Chancellor, and the Right Hon. Henry Boyle, Esq; Speaker of the Hon. House of Commons, are appointed Lords Justices of this Kingdom, in the Absence of his Grace our Lord Lieutenant.

We hear that an Order is arriv'd for an Addition of several Men to every Troop of Horse and Dragoons, and to each Company of Foot in this Kingdom.

We hear, that Mr. Henry Martin, who receiv'd Sentence to be executed the 19th Inst. at Gallway, for a Rape committed on Miss Yelverton, has got further time to the 30th Instant; and that great Application is making to have him transported.

We hear that the Earl of Chesterfield, who is in a bad State of Health, is coming to this Kingdom to drink Goat's Whey for his Recovery.

Last Tuesday, Dr. Howard Bishop of Elphin was interr'd at St. Bride's Church, his Pall supported by six Bishops.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, April 15. We learn from Pittenweem, that his Majesty's Sloop Princess Ann, John Hay Master, having brought in there the Margaret and Christen, belonging to Thomas Donaldson of that Place, with uncustomed Goods; about one o'Clock of Sunday Morning last a great many armed Men boarded the Sloop, and knocking down the Watch, thought to command the Crew; whereupon Capt. Hay, after discharging a Blunderbuss, got on Deck in his Shirt, a cock'd Pistol in each Hand, which affrighting the Rioters, suddenly took the Flight. And tho' we hear not of any Person killed with the Shot, yet two of the Countrymen were drowned, and three taken Prisoners.

The Hon. Col. Douglas's Regiment of Marines being ordered to march in hither from Stirling, in order to embark for the Isle of Wight; the first Column of that Corps will arrive this Night at Leith, and the whole are to be quartered at Dalkeith and neighbouring Villages till the Transports come down. Yesterday 2 Soldiers caught an Eel a little above Leith-Bridge, which measures 5 Foot 1 half long, and about 15 Inches round.

Edinburgh, April 14. Saturday last the Town was agreeably surpris'd to see the famous Ratclif, the notorious Horse-stealer, brought up to the City by a Guard of 12 Soldiers, strongly fetter'd, and committed to the Tolbooth. He was tried in the Month of June last, and sentenc'd to be hang'd in August thereafter in the Grass-Market for the said Crime, but, in a most surprising Manner, made his Escape.

On Saturday Night Captain James Colquhoun of Luss was married to Lady Helen Sutherland, Sister to the present Earl of Sutherland.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Bristol, April 19. Last Saturday Evening a Footman, Servant to Mr. Kingston of Bath, was apprehended in Broad-street, for breaking open his Master's Desk, and stealing thence 120 l. in Money.

He came that Afternoon to the Lamb Inn without Lawford's Gate, and calling for a Tankard of Ale, he had not drank half of it before he was ask'd by Mrs. Welch, who lives at the said Inn, Whether he had not heard of the Robbery at Bath? He told her, that he came from thence at Eight that Morning, but heard nothing of it. He was so surpris'd at the Question, that he immediately quitted the Inn without paying his Reckoning, or drinking up his Liquor; and as a Person had been there from Bath in Search of the Thief a few Hours before, he was suspected to be the Man, from the Instance of leaving the Inn in such a sudden Manner, and accordingly Mr. Welch and another Person went upon the Look-out, and found him in Broad-street, and upon charging him with the Robbery, he confess'd it, and deliver'd into their Hands about 80 l. of his Master's Money, and a Silver Watch.

On Wednesday Morning, between 3 and 4 o'Clock, a most dreadful Fire broke out at the House of Mr. Moor, a Tallow-Chandler on St. James's Back, which burnt with such Fury, that in less than four Hours it entirely consum'd the said House, with three Tun of Tallow, a deal of Rofin and other Combustibles, a large Quantity of Candles, and all their Furniture and Wearing Apparel; together with a considerable Quantity of Money, and all his Books of Accounts. The Houses adjoining were much damaged.

Arrived at several Ports.

At Dover, the Vere, Horne, from Leghorn, and the Margaret, Dillon, from South Carolina.

At Guernsey, the Kizar Carolus, Klinkert, from Cadiz.

At Carolina, the Kilworth, MacHugh, from Boston.

L O N D O N.

Extract of a Letter from Bayonne, dated Ap. 19 N.S.

We have just receiv'd Advice (by Express) of the Arrival at St. Andero the 15th Inst. of the Two Men of War from Buenos Ayres, called the Hermione and the St. Etienne, the one of 60 Guns the other of 50, having on board 846 thousand Pieces of Eight registred, besides a great Quantity of Virginia Wool and Leather.

They write from Derby, that a Letter was lately intercepted there, directed to George Ashmore, a Prisoner in that Gaol, and carry'd to Thomas Cifborne, Esq; one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and which being open'd has made a fresh Discovery of his having been concern'd in coining several Guineas and Crown-pieces in the Month of February last; since which strict Orders have been given for his closer Confinement.

Last Saturday Se'nnight Rob. Blake, condemn'd at Thetford for Horse-stealing, was executed on the Castle-hill at Norwich. He confess'd the Fact, and dy'd very penitent.

On the Monday following a mad Bullock was drove thro' that City, which did a great deal of Mischief. One Woman had her Arm broke, another was so frighted that it threw her into a Fever so that her Life is despair'd of, and a young Lad had his Bowels ripp'd out and dy'd next Day.

Yesterday Se'nnight a Fire broke out at the Dwelling-house of Mr. Horrex of Foulden in the County of Norfolk, which entirely consum'd the said House and Furniture, with the Barns, Granaries, Stables and Out-houses, and his Son narrowly escap'd the Flames by jumping out of a Chamber Window. It was occasion'd by a Spar being run thro' the Chimney, which took Fire.

On Thursday last came on at the Old Bailey before the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor and the Lord Chief Justice Loe, &c. the Trial of Mr. Edward Barton, an eminent Attorney of New Alresford in Hampshire on an Indictment for Forgery upon a Bond of 85 l. and after a full Hearing he was honourably acquitted, a great Number of Gentlemen of Distinction, Family and Fortune of that County appearing on his Behalf and giving him an exceeding good Character.

His Majesty has been pleas'd to appoint Lieutenant Nathaniel Bateman of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers to be be a Brigadier in the First Troop of Horse Guards commanded by the Right Hon. the Lord Delawar.

On Sunday last Mr. Baron Parker was sworn in before the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor, as one of the Judges of the Court of Common-Pleas, in the Room of Mr. Justice Denton, deceased.

This Day his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, with his Dukes and Family, are expected in Town from Ireland.

On Friday Night last died suddenly at his House in Barton Street, Westminster, Mr. Francis Macklane, Under Door-Keeper to the Hon. House of Commons.

His Place is in the Gift of Mr. Odiam, Sergeant at Arms.

We hear that the Parliament will rise this Day Se'nnight.

For the immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN, tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cause soever.

And also of

IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occasion'd, or of so long standing,

The Famous and Inestimable

PROLIFICK ELIXIR,

The highest, richest and most powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended.

BEING the only true and infallible Cure for BARRENNESS in Women and IMPOTENCY in Men in the Universe, and which at once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have experienced, and that by promoting the useful Curricie of the Blood and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid, depressed State, to one more florid and sparkling, opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreasing the Animal Spirit, restoring a Juvenile Blood, and evidently replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balsmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and sensibly it renovates, recruits, and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It induces a bright, lively Disposition, banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression. A Bandage of Ladies, who for several Years were deemed irretrievably barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and become Fruitful; and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by fast living, or otherwise, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, inasmuch, that very many illustrious Families, who for want of Children, were almost inconsolable, are now blest with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their blest Issue. It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even keeps back the Effects of Old Age itself. It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon-Yard in the Minories, at 1 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

To SMELL to, &c.

The Most Noble, Volatile SMELLING-BOTTLE in the World, lately much improved.

WHICH smelled to, instantly relieves

Persons in the most dismal fainting or swooning FITS, and in a Moment removes Fluxions, Vapours, Dumbness, Head-ach, Megrim, &c. It takes off all heavy Sleepiness, retards Swoonings, keeps up the Spirits to a Modest, and by its Use admits of no fainting; but invigorates and enlivens the whole Man, recreates and makes cheerful, tho' never so sad, and in a Moment raises all the sensitive Faculties.

It is a so to be taken inwardly by Drops, which effectually takes off and eradicates the very Cause; for it potently relieves, comforts, and strengthens the Brain, creates and corroborates the Stomach; removes Sickness from it, helps Digestion, cleanses the Blood; and, in a Word, is the greatest Cathartic, Stomachick, Hepatick, and powerful Aromatick possible.

Whereas many Persons of both Sexes perform their Handkerchiefs with a few Drops of it, and find that in using it so, it is of singular Service in all the Cases above mentioned; and many Gentlemen, Ladies and Others use it after this Manner, purely because it gives a most fragrant and delicious Odour, that constantly both delights and relieves the Senses, not only better than any thing of a musky Kind (which is really hurtful to most Constitutions) but it really takes off what such Things do occasion; and also relieves the Head and Brain from any ill Effects of common Smell, and instantly diverts from, and prevents the bad Consequences of any sudden, nauseous, offensive Smells; therefore it is extremely necessary for all Gentlemen, Ladies, &c. always to be carried in their Pockets.

Sold now only at Mrs. Markham's Toy-Shop, at the Seven Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, and at Mr. King's Picture-shop in the Poultry, at 2 s. 6 d. each.
